Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Senior Secured Convertible Note

On February 28, 2023, Virgin Orbit Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") sold and issued to Virgin Investments Limited ("VIL") a senior secured convertible note (the "Convertible Note") in the principal amount of $5.0 million, which is convertible into shares of the Company's common stock or other Qualified Securities (as defined below), subject to certain conditions and limitations set forth in the Convertible Note. The Company sold and issued the Convertible Note pursuant to a subscription agreement, dated as of February 28, 2023 (the "Subscription Agreement"), between the Company, VIL and the Company's domestic subsidiaries named therein that are jointly and severally guaranteeing the Company's obligations under the Convertible Note (the "Guarantors"). The Company will use the net proceeds from the Convertible Note for working capital.

The Convertible Note contains customary events of default, bears interest at an annual rate of 12.0% (or 16.0% upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an event of default under the Convertible Note), payable in cash semi-annually, and has a maturity date of November 4, 2024, unless earlier repurchased, converted or redeemed in accordance with its terms prior to such date. Subject to any limitations under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, the Convertible Note will automatically convert into Qualified Securities (as defined below) at a conversion price equal to the purchase price paid by investors in the relevant Qualified Financing (as defined below) if, prior to the earliest to occur of November 4, 2024, any Fundamental Change Effective Date and the effective date of any Merger Event (each as defined in the Convertible Note), the Company consummates a bona fide third-party financing of its common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for the Company's common stock for gross cash proceeds of at least $50.0 million (excluding any securities purchased by VIL or its affiliates) in one or more related and substantially similar and simultaneous transactions at the same price (a "Qualified Financing" and the securities sold in such Qualified Financing, the "Qualified Securities"). VIL will have the option to convert all or a portion of the Convertible Note in accordance with such terms in a financing by the Company that would have been a Qualified Financing but for the gross cash proceeds in such financing being less than $50.0 million, with such conversion effected as described above as if such financing were a Qualified Financing. Additionally, on or after October 15, 2024, VIL has the right to convert all or any portion of the Convertible Note into shares of common stock at an initial conversion rate of 345.5425 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of the Convertible Note (subject to adjustments as provided in the Convertible Note, the "Fixed Conversion Rate").

In the event of a Fundamental Change, a Merger Event (each as defined in the Convertible Note) or a redemption of the Convertible Note by the Company, or if any automatic conversion in connection with a Qualified Financing would be subject to limitations set forth in the relevant rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, VIL has the right to convert the Convertible Note at the Fixed Conversion Rate. Prior to the Maturity Date, the Company may redeem all or part of the Convertible Note for cash at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Convertible Note to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date (the "Redemption Price") upon prior written notice provided in accordance with the Convertible Note. VIL may also require the Company to redeem for cash all or any portion of the Convertible Note at the Redemption Price upon prior written notice provided in accordance with the Convertible Note.

The Convertible Note contains a covenant that restricts the Company's and the Guarantors' ability to incur liens on the Company's and the Guarantors' assets and properties without VIL's consent. If the Company undergoes a Fundamental Change (as defined in the Convertible Note), then, subject to certain conditions, VIL may require the Company to repurchase for cash all or any portion of the Convertible Note at a fundamental change repurchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Convertible Note to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the fundamental change repurchase date. Initially, a maximum of 1,727,712 shares of the common stock may be issued upon conversion of the Convertible Note at the Fixed Conversion Rate, subject to adjustment provisions included in the Convertible Note and subject to conversion in connection with a deemed Qualified Financing.

In connection with the Convertible Note, the Company and the Guarantors granted a first-priority security interest on substantially all of their respective assets, including all aircrafts, aircraft engines (including spare aircraft parts) and related assets, other than certain customary excluded assets and permitted liens described in the Convertible Note. Upon the occurrence and continuation of an event of default under the Convertible Note, VIL is entitled to, among other things, foreclose on the assets that are the subject of the security interest. The Subscription Agreement and the Convertible Note are each considered a "Note Document" under the Security Agreement dated as of January 30, 2023 among the Company, the other grantors party thereto and VIL, filed as Exhibit 10.2 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 1, 2023.

The Subscription Agreement contains customary registration rights, representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification obligations by the parties. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Subscription Agreement were made only for purposes of the Subscription Agreement and as of specific dates, were made solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement and are subject to certain important limitations.

The foregoing descriptions of the Convertible Note and the Subscription Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Convertible Note and the Subscription Agreement, which are attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K (this "Current Report") as Exhibits 4.1 and 10.1, respectively, which are incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment to Existing Notes

In connection with the Convertible Note, the Company and VIL also entered into a Note Amendment (the "Note Amendment"), pursuant to which certain terms of (i) the convertible note sold and issued to VIL on November 4, 2022 in the principal amount of $25.0 million (the "November 2022 Note"), (ii) the convertible note sold and issued to VIL on December 19, 2022 in the principal amount of $20.0 million (the "December 2022 Note"), and (iii) the convertible note sold and issued to VIL on January 30, 2022 in the principal amount of $10.0 million (together with the November 2022 Note and the December 2022 Note, the "Existing Notes") were amended for purposes of aligning such terms with those of the Convertible Note, and providing that VIL may also require the Company to redeem for cash all or any portion of such Existing Note at the applicable redemption price upon prior written notice provided in accordance with such Existing Note.

The foregoing description of the Note Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Note Amendment, which is attached to this Current Report as Exhibits 10.3, which is incorporated herein by reference.
